

An invitation to join the Friends of the Musicians' Chapel

THE FRIENDS OF THE MUSICIANS' CHAPEL

The Friends of the Musicians' Chapel are the custodians of the Musicians' Chapel within the Church of the Holy Sepulchre (St Sepulchre's) in the City of London and of the Musicians' Book of Remembrance held permanently within the Musicians' Chapel.

For a minimum annual subscription of only £10.00 you can become a Friend and support the work of the Committee. Your subscription may be Gift Aided.

HOW OUR INCOME IS SPENT

The Friends' income, from subscriptions as well as collections at services, maintains and beautifies the Chapel (including the imminent installation of new lighting) and covers the cost of inscribing the Book of Remembrance each year with names of departed musicians.

The Friends also supports music within the Church of the Holy Sepulchre (St Sepulchre's) in the form of a contribution to the cost of the Organ Scholarship and to the Ensemble-in-Residence scheme, a new development at the Church from September 2018 to which the Friends of the Musicians' Chapel are particularly linked.
